Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the defendant's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [34]. The reasons for both the continuance and the unusual length of the continuance are articulated and well established in the motion. The court accepts and adopts the same as a sufficient basis for the granting of the requested continuance period. Good cause having been shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [34] is granted as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for June 4, 2018, is continued to November 26, 2018.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and November 26, 2018, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: May 24, 2018.
